

January 2017

Grochau Cellars

Gamay Noir Redford Wetle Farms 2014

Willamette Valley, Oregon

90 Points

Limpid violet. Black raspberry, herb and peppery spice scents pick up a smoky mineral quality with air. Juicy and penetrating on the palate, offering sappy dark fruit flavors energized by a suggestion of white pepper. The sweet, incisive finish shows very good focus and spicy vivacity, leaving notes of spicecake and floral pastilles behind. (JR)

